Halves.

The foot ball team from Creighton university won a splendid victory over the strong Cornell (Ia.) team at Vinton street park Saturday afternoon in a game which gave a good idea of what the new rules will do. Creighton started with a rush after the first kickoff and it looked us though the blue and white boys would sweep Cornell off its feet, but the fown and kicked the ball out of danger and it measured back and forth in the center of the week's work was hindered by the field until time was called for the first half.

Creighton won the toss and choose the downhill side instead of taking advantage of the wind, and this counted considerably against them, as the punter of the Cornell on the first kickoff and book and forth in the center of the week practice was hindered by the field until time was called for the first half.

Creighton won the toss and choose the downhill side instead of taking advantage of the wind, and this counted considerably against them, as the punter of the Cornell on the first kickoff and Brome made a forty-yard run to Cornell's forty-yard line, and then by consistent plunges carried the ball to the three-yard line, where it was lost. Cornell punted to Brome, who than tried for a drop kick from the twenty-diveyred the line, but felled The ball to the three-yard line, where it was lost. Cornell punted to Brome, who than tried for a drop kick from the twenty-diveyred the guardreback seems to be pretty well.

The fack is metal Guarde for Quarterback, but the election of the season is a till two which the men are performing now. The opening game of the season is atill two weeks in the full two weeks in the full fine predictions and the men are developing rapidly.

The tackle and guard positions are the most unsettled on the team. It is believed here that John Chalmers can be a fixed and guard positions are the most unsettled on the team. It is believed here that John

The first half started well for Plattsmouth, but its opponents steadled on their lifteen-yard line, and there securing the half fore down the field for a touchdown. In nearly all of the rest of the half the half was in South Omaha's possession. After Plattsmouth seegred the half it was forced across its own goal line for a safety. The third louchdown was made by Munger after a sensational thirty-yard run. The half ended with the score standing is to 6. Plattsmouth punted frequently in the second half, and so held South Omaha to two touchdowns. The final score was 2 to 6. All of the South Omaha flavers put up a good game. McCullough, Cohn and Krug being especially worthy of mention while i.conard easily started for Plattsmouth. The linesup:

Cornell kicked forty yards to Brome, who was tackled hard and dropped the bail after a hard run, giving the ball to Cornell on the forty-yard line. Cornell could not gain, in fact made the distance on downs not more than twice in the game, and was forced to try a quarter back kick. It worked successfully, for a Cornell man got the ball in the mixup. Creighton lost five yards by an offside piay and fumbled. giving the ball to Cornell could not gain and was forced to kick and after an exchange of kicks Cornell got possession of the ball on its own fifteen-yard line. Cornell foosled the kick, and it was Creighton's ball on the twenty-yard line. Many kicks were exchanged, until finally McCormick broke through and blocked a kick from Cornell. The ball was picked up and carried over by Magirl and Brome missed the goal. Score 10 to 0.

EVENTS ON THE HUNNING TRACKS Deshabille Wins the Municipal Handi

NEW YORK, Oct. 12.—Deshabilie, with Knapp in the saddle, won the Manicipal handicap at a mile and three quarriers at Belmont park today, defeating fronsides by eight lengths, with Miss Crawford third. The time, 2.57%, is a new track record. Ironsides was always favorite at 1 to 1, while Deshabilie was backed from 5 to 1 down to 4 to 1. Red Friar was strongly played, his price dropping from 8 to 1 to 5 to 1. He was never dangerons. Sailor Boy went out to make the pace, followed by Ironsides and Red Friar. This was the order into the back stretch, but at the far turn fronsides moved up to the leader and led into the stretch. Meanwhile Knapp on Deshabilit was gradually working his way up, and when straightened for the run to the wire drew away and won easily. Ironsides was two lengths in front of Miss Crawford. Alfar, second choice, won the Brook cup steeplechase at about three miles in a hard drive.

W. H. Daniel won the Nursery handiesp, six furlongs straight, by a length from the 20-to-1 shot, Turenne. Sewell, in wincap at Belmont Park.

HARNESS RACING IN LEXINGTON Talpa Wins the Stell Stake in the Fourth Heat

Lexington, ky., Oct. 23.—The thirty-fourth annual meeting of the Kentucky Trotting Horse Breeders association meeting was brought to a close this afternoon with the Stoil stake as the feature of the program. Talpa, a representative of the Oakland farm of Weilsville, N. Y., won the race. Talpa had no trouble after losing the first heat to Dr. Chase. In the other heats she never was headed. The 2.20 class for pacers went to Ruby Lacy in a featureless race, as the mare outclassed the field. On account of serstches the 2.26 trot was declared off.

It is a peculiar fact that accidents marred the first and last races of the meeting. In the Stoil stake David Cahill, driving sister Collete, coilided with Charles Jamison, driving Kapolna. Both drivers were thrown out, but neither was seriously inlined. Results: Stoll stake 2:19 trot, value $5,000, | play o In five:

styrate for Miss Curtis. A two-foot cop bunker on the seventeenth green accomplished the defeat for Miss Adams. The seventeenth proved Miss Adams' Waterloo. Miss Adams sliced her bail into the woods, but an accommodating tree beaded it into the fair green short of the bunker. She just falled to pitch over the two-foot cup and played two more from the trap before reaching the green. Her fifth stroke struck the edge of the cup and jumped out. Miss Curtis played safe and won the match and the championship. The cards wore: styrule for Miss Curtis. A two-foot cop
